

NOTIFICATION

The Schedule of Examinations and Question Pattern and appointment of Internal and External Examiners as per the New Regulation prescribed by the Pharmacy Council of India from 2017-2018 batches under Semester Pattern.

M.Pharmacy Degree Course:

i) Schedule of the Examination as per the Regulations of the Pharmacy Council of India New Delhi from the Academic Year 2017-2018 onwards.

The Examinations will be conducted by the University during 15th November and 15th May of every Academic Year.

ii) Question Paper Pattern

Long Answer	2 X20 = 40
Short Notes	7X5 = 35

Total	75

It is mandatory that 10 marks allotted to prepare the Problem Based Questions wherever applicable and not more than 10 marks for the same.

Example: Subjects like Bio Pharmaceutics and Pharmaceuticals Analysis.

iii) Practical Examination:

As per the Pharmacy Council India norms there is only one Practical Examination for each speciality combining all the subjects. Hence, one Internal from Pharmaceutical Analysis and another from concerned specialty. One External Examiner of the concerned specialty from other Universities shall be appointed for the University Examinations (Two internals and one External Totally Three Examiners). However, only One Internal and One External examiner to be appointed for the Branches Pharmaceutical Analysis and Pharmacy Practice. (One Internal and One External Examiner Totally Two Examiners)

(II) B.Pharmacy Degree Course:

i) Schedule of the Examination as per the Regulations of the Pharmacy Council of India New Delhi from the Academic Year 2017-2018 onwards.

The Examinations will be conducted by the University during 15th February and 16th August of every Academic Year.

ii) Question Paper Pattern

Essay	2 X15 = 30
Short Notes	5X5 = 25
Short Answer	10X2 = 20

Total	75

iii) Subject Exemption in First Semester:

If the candidate has studied both Mathematics and Biology in +2 Board of Examinations, Tamil Nadu and other Equivalent examinations the candidates need not to take up the examination of Remedial Biology or Remedial Maths in First Semester of B. Pharm. Degree Course.

SD/
CONTROLLER OF EXAMINATIONS I/C